LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

'Warriors' museum honors war veterans

After many years of hearing about the Museum of Forgotten Warriors, my wife decided to go and see what this place was all about.

The day before going we called to confirm that it would be open. Got a message to leave a message. We did and later that day we received a call from Dan Spears telling us that, indeed, he would be open, but if we didn't see him to just go in and make ourselves welcome. Dan was there along with a gentleman named Tony. My wife and i were taken on a tour of true history of men and women who have served in war and peace from the Civil War to the present war.

War is not a pleasant thing, but we must honor the men and women who serve. And Dan Spears has done this with great dignity. Dan Spears is a hero - he serves our veterans. Thank you, Dan, for a wonderful day.
